

Changes revolving around your needs

*Courteous, friendly, ethical, adding-value-assessment
Independent assessment services with a dignify purpose*

BRS

BRS mission, vision and values supports our brand which proudly bears a consumer-centric legal commitment.

Actions to “hold the line” on the strength of each organization provides fundamentals toward improvements and even shifting to a higher level of performance and market position, and this needs is a must in today’s free market economy.

Our network of exclusive professionals having worked for decades with the highly successful organizations—through adverse and favorable cycles—help us to carry-out independent third-party assessment services proficiently to help your organization to the lead of the curve. When a global economy throws demands that combine market trends, changes in technology and evolution of regulations, the relevance of having the knowledge to know what it takes to contribute to your organization’s success is vital.

Leaders understand that the quality of their questions and team work are necessary to lasting enhancements to their organization's performance while realizing the importance of their goals.

January 2017

At BRS, client-organizations provide us with valuable feedback about market conditions, risk and performance of our services. We listen, act and enhance our services, while focusing in ways to assist client-organization's improve competitively while reducing risk.

Since we continuously address client needs and pursue improvements within a consumer-centric commitment, BRS client-organizations continue to benefit from dependable and adding-value-assessment services.

BRS accredited management services includes:

- ISO 9001
- ISO 13485
- ISO 14001
- ISO 22000
- HACCP MS (...21 CFR 110, 21 CFR 120, 101, CODEX based)
- OSHMS (occupational safety... OHSAS 18001 | ILO-OSH | Loss Prevention)
- ISMS (information security...), ISO/IEC 27001
- Social Accountability

and interaction with regulatory requirements including:

- HIPAA
- Sarbanes-Oxley
- Gramm-Leach-Bliley
- MDD
- FDA

Integrated Management Systems; combining ISO 9001 | ISO 14001 | ISO 22000 and other benchmarks.

...key to our success is client advocacy, as part of a network of professionals, collaborative team effort, and business partnership within a consumer-centric commitment...

BRS

the most accurate match...

When your organization needs third-party management services with the precise combination of skills, experience and character... when you need someone who is capable and competent of assessing for opportunities beyond registration... when you could use an insightful and innovative perspective assisting your organization to higher levels of achievement and performance...please contact us.

An assessment leading onto inspection, validation or certification is demanding on your organization as it is equally demanding from an accredited assessment — registration body that acts locally while maintaining a global perspective. Our focus is to advance in today's free market competitiveness with reduction in risks within a consumer-centric purpose. This requires an in depth knowledge of your industry and your business, and the experience to put it together contributing to support continuous success.

BRS has the knowledge and the experience to provide better-in-class independent assessments exercising due-care through regulatory affair activities.

Our core team of professionals contribute to performance enhancements, based on over four decades of experience.

BRS focuses on a commitment to long-term, client-driven relationship

BRS core of exclusive professionals is one team of assessors with technical experts who have heightened awareness of the importance of understanding and advocating competitiveness. This is, BRS core members have an average of over 25 years of professional business experience propitiating actions to hand down tacit knowledge from one generation to another.

We are a exclusive team operating with passion for your success and rigorous work ethics to help you improve performance, while building on your values and principles of quality, adding-value, integrity, trust, character and ethics.

quality

Joining the BRS core assessors is by invitation; our assessors do not follow the common path of applying, interviewing, hiring or subcontracting.

... We continuously search for and nurture toward the better possible team of exclusive professionals.

BRS

We made Adding-Value-Assessment

a systematic approach that enables going beyond merely to meet requirements and onto recognizing opportunities to improvement-innovate-invent (I³), manifesting change and sustainable best practices... as client-organizations determine... We consider our operations and approach to be the most innovative. Acting on BRS requests are moments of reflection which are if anything even more valuable than taking action and in an era when peace of life is becoming increasingly frantic. This is possible because of the legally binding noble and honorable purpose.

The crown of our mark is an object of significant achievement. What makes the BRS mark esteemed perhaps, better left to conjecture. Whether is the unique combination of the competency of our network of exclusive professionals or the values instill through our mission and values or adding-value-assessments, our purpose and only client-organizations achieving the BRS mark as a basis for continual improvement can fully appreciate our inimitable provision of service.

Regions of Service:

North America

Central America

South America

Euro Asia

Asia Pacific

Europe

Middle East

Africa

Our vision is to provide solutions to client-organizations by striving to be their most favorable option in conformity assessments certification, as we do not pursue to be the biggest.

BRS

BRS

Rim of the World Operations, California

Hilltop Boulevard — POB 1020 Running Springs, California USA 92382-1020

global@brsltd.org

Main URL www.brsltd.org

[www.brsglobal.us]

[www.brsasiapacific.net]

From international +1.909.324.1185

America · Euro Asia · Middle East · Australasia · Asia Pacific · Europe · Africa

BRS