

BRS FOOD SAFETY CERTIFICATION FOR HACCP | HARPC

PROVIDING FOOD SAFETY CERTIFICATION PROGRAM THROUGH HACCP WHILE ADDRESSING FSMA HARPC

Certification with Validation

There is never a more appropriate time for a third-party HACCP (HARPC) certification. Food-borne illness are ongoing and the consumer increasingly becomes aware. The international community seeks to reduce food safety uncertainty for which has adopted HACCP and now HARPC.

BRS has developed a HACCP certification protocol (HACCP MS | HARPC) based on legal obligation and regulations for a legally binding purpose to protect communities of consumers and consumers in general.

BRS as an independent third-party assessment, inspection and certification body. We require that BRS exclusive professional visit your organization, assess the practices and methods to conduct process and activities against HACCP (HACCP MS) based applicable laws and regulations. Your organization will receive a 3-year valid certificate requiring surveillance of your organization.

Third-party HACCP certification offers that a team of competent and impartial professionals verify that your organization has an effective safe food system. Successful implementation of BRS HACCP MS will help organizations discover and avert potential hazards tainting food and drink and propitiates validation of the HACCP while adhering to legal and regulatory requirements. And these attune Food Safety Modernization Act 2011 applying Hazardous Analysis Risk-based Preventive Controls (HARPC).

Why Certification—Validation?

Upon successful assessment, this will demonstrate to stakeholders and others that your organization abides by the principles and requirements set by law for the protection of consumers. Equally it will help in managing fulfillment in accordance with better practices as these relate to food safety. We provide a guidance document HACCP MS (HARPC) as well verification checklist to client-organizations.

Certification will improve overall food safety performance based regulations, remove uncertainty and entice market opportunities and growth.

THE ROUTE TO ATTEST & CERTIFICATION

Application: Contact BRS and request application form (questionnaire).

Application Process: BRS from the Rim of the World Office reviews the questionnaire, study your needs and present you with a quote to meet your organization's specific needs for the purpose to protect consumers.

Selection of BRS: Once your organization selects BRS for HACCP (HARPC) certification the organization agrees to Term of Business Agreement (TBA).

HACCP Team Appointment: BRS selects and present to the organization for the organization to accept, the team could comprise of local and/or global members.

Phase I: This is the initial stage of assessment with the objective gather information on your organization and to discuss the level of readiness to continue to Phase II HACCP (in USA HARPC) toward certification. This will help to achieve certification during Phase II.

Note: We may combine the Phase I and Phase II visit for small organizations.

The time allowed between Phase I and Phase II is not to exceed 90 days.

Phase II: Is with the objective to recommend your organization to issue a HACCP (HARPC) "Certificate of Registration", after the organization is assessed against HACCP MS (HARPC). Upon successful completion of the assessment protocol the certificate is issued.
